ABSTRACT

With the opening and reform policy step by step Chinese economy obtained the development of hitherto unknown. But at the same time, Along with the economic takeoff, there has also appeared a series of problems in the development process. From the western countries' development history, traditional agriculture of national or regional economic development process, also is the process of national industrialization, appearing large-scale rural labor flows to the city phenomenon inevitably. But because of the rapid development of urbanization, city industrial demand for labor, as well as the implementation of positive migration policy, western countries in the process of city did not appear the " migrant workers " of this phenomenon. But the present Chinese market economy development is still in the initial stage, economic policies and the attachment of the relevant system at founding of new China influence on today's social development, China has appeared " migrant workers" as a special social stratum become a peculiar phenomenon in the development.

In recent years, with the continuous development of the economy, the society from all walks of life gave high attention and related research to the phenomenon of migrant workers. Most on the basis of migrant workers in the contribution to economic development, discuss necessity and the relevant system construction about protect the rights of migrant workers. At the attention of social all circles and efforts of migrant workers, the interest of migrant workers improves somewhat compared with the initial, but rights violations have occurred from time to time, the rights and interests of the migrant workers still do not effectively protect. And with this group continuous development, migrant workers took place intergenerational transfer, a new generation of " migrant workers" has brought new problems. Comparison with the first generation migrant workers, new generation of migrant workers have their own characteristics, based on the development of new generation of migrant workers, This paper discuss the legal mechanism on the protection of its rights: First, construct the migrant workers benefit expression mechanism, make this one group interests can be fully, effectively reflect; Second, to strengthen the supervision of law enforcement, improve the efficiency of executing the law protect the legitimate rights and interests of migrant workers; Third, perfect the mechanism of legal aid to migrant workers, get timely and effective maintenance when interests are violated; The fourth, Construct judicial relief mechanism
